Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On this date, we were informed by Anthony FAZIO, the brother of the deceased, that a man worth looking up might be a person by the name of Tom CHIOLINI, or CHIOLINO. Mr. Fazio states that the only information he has that he could be contacted at a place called MAMA'S, which is located in Minoqua, Wisconsin. He states that this Chilini is noted for doing quite a bit of betting and he has visited Milwaukee on several ocassions with his brother, Louis. States the last time that he knows Chiolini was here visiting his brother, Louis was about one month ago at the Iron Horse Restaurant, located at 1100 West Wells Street.

Checked our Bureau of Identification, and the only thing we came up with was a Thomas James CHIOLINO, W/M, 1-29-30. He had one arrest in 1953 for Assault and Battery, which was dismissed. No further information on anyone with that name at this time.

Mr. Anthony Fazio states that that is the only information he had regarding Chiolini, and does not know if there is any connection at all between this Chiolini and the death of his brother, but he states that any information he is getting, or anybody that he can think of, he is relating to our Department to be checked out at this time.

Checked with Sgt. Engebretson of SAS, and they have a file on a Thomas Chiolino living at Rt. 1, Hgwy 70, Minoqua, regarding possible connection with burglars & prostitutes in Shelby, Wisconsin.

COUNTY OF MILWAUKEE
INTER-OFFICE COMMUNICATION

DATE : April 3, 1972

TO : E. Michael McCann and William D. Gardner

FROM : Casey Strzyzewski

SUBJECT : Complaint of Bernard Lindbohm

In regard to the attached complaint of Bernard Lindbohm, said assignment given to me by Mr. Gardner to investigate, I talked to Louis Fazio, Medical Examiner Joe LaMont and Carl Leiberkind, the maitre di' at the Pfister Crown Room, and attorney Bud Stein.

Upon contacting LOUIS FAZIO at the Iron Horse at 1100 West Wells Street, he stated that he has known the subject for at least five years and he has always been a problem at his place of business; that he bothers his patrons in the tavern, trying to get them to buy drinks for for him; as a matter of face he has ordered him out of the premises because of trying to make business dealings with the patrons, and that in his opinion he feels subject has a mental disorder. Upon revealing the contents of the letter received by our office from the subject, Mr. Fazio said the contents are completely false; that I should assure the district attorney that as of March 31, 1972, he was not going to permit the man to enter his place of business again

CARL LEIBERKIND, age 58, of 858 of 2026 North 39 Street, claims he does not know the subject but may have seen him. He has never done any business with the said Lindbohm.

Contacted JOE LAMONT and upon interviewing him, he stated that he doesn't know the subject by name but possibly he knows him by sight. Denies any dealings with the subject as far as obtaining any of the items mentioned in the said letter to the district attorney.

In my investigation of this subject, I feel there is no truth in this man's complaint. I was unable to check to see if the subject has a mental health problem but will check on this point as soon as possible.

CS:m

P.S. Contacted BUD STEIN and he said the man came to his office on 12-11-72, and asked him to write a letter to Mr. Fazio, copy of which is attached, and at that time he paid him a fee of $10. Bud said that he didn't want to have anything more to do with him and that in his opinion he is mentally deficient.

Talked with Mr. L. E. Brune, Chief Med. Admn., who says subject is World War #2 vet., has known him for 10 yrs., is drawing dis. pension, has nervous condition, patient is given outside medication, has strong ideas, will not stay in hospital, therefore subject will be getting in more problems.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Wednesday, 10/4/72, we were informed by Detective Snead Carroll, Day Shift, in regards to a garnishment summons which he recovered from the home of Louis Fazio, which was found when the premises was checked. At this time, on this garnishee, which was served on 2/27/70, by Evelyn Daniels, served at Fazio's restaurant and cocktail lounge, 634 N. 5th St., on a waitress, Victoria TROTTER, of 1539A N. 32nd St, W/F. Detective Carroll informed us that at this time, he was unable to interview the subject and requested that we try to contact and interview her on our tour of duty.

We attempted to located the subjèce, Victoria Trotter, W/F, 7/21/44, of 1541A N. 32nd St. (Last known address). Up to a couple of years ago, this subject was a waitress at Fazio's Restaurant & Cocktail Lounge, at 634 N. 5th St. At 1541A N. 32nd St., we learned that the subject had moved from this address approximately 8 or 9 months ago. We also found at this time, that this subject is married to B/M, and that she may possibly be working at the La Joy Restaurant as a waitress, located on W. Lisbon Ave. We checked La Joy's Restaurant and found that the subject terminated her employment there approximately 3 months ago. We then obtained an address of 3814 W. Walnut St.

Also a check of these license numbers reveal that the subject also suposedly lives at 3814 W. Walnut.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Friday, 10/6/72, I interviewed a Victoria Marie TROTTER, W/F, DOB 7/21/44, of 3070 N. 30 St., regarding the FAZIO Murder complaint. It was made known to us that Victoria TROTTER had formerly worked for Fazio's On Fifth, located at 634 N. 5 St., sometime in the year of 1970, and had received a garnishment action there from her landlord. On this date, we talked to her regarding this garnishment which the papers were found in the home of Louis FAZIO at 2805 N. Humboldt Ave.. She was questioned regarding this and she told us that her landlord had served papers on her, but at the time she was working entirely off the tips because of being indebted to the Fazio's themselves. She was brought in to the warrant squad in our Detective Bureau on 14 parking warrants and also a commitment of $150.00 from the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Department. Photo and prints were taken of her at this time. She denies any knowledge of the Fazio killing. States that she is now separated from her husband, Hosea TROTTER and hasn't seen him for quite sometime. She was unable to give us any information as to why or who could have killed Louis FAZIO.

Regarding the note that was found in the desk of Louis FAZIO, it has been determined by our Document Examiner, that this note was written by a Bernard A. LINDBOHM, alias, Bernie the Bird man, our B OF I # 58322. This note was supposedly written as far back as January of 1972. Mr. BLINSKI of the B OF I identified this writting as being that of Mr. LINDBOHM, comparing the handwriting on file at the B OF I on handwriting cards and also letters mailed to the District Attorney's office, back in January 15 & 17 of 1972 and both letters signed, Bernard LINDBOHM

At this time, we have nothing to conect Mr. LINDBOHM with the other threathening type of letters that were made out to individuals in Shorewood, Wisconsin and Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. Suggest that Mr. Bernard A. LINDBOHM of 1641 N. Prospect venue, Apartment 114, be talked to again regarding the note that was mailed to Mr. FAZIO back in January of 1972.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

Regarding the threatending and obscene type letters that were received by Mr. Anthony FAZIO, living in Shorewood, who is not related in any way to the complainant in this matter and the very obscene type letter that was received by a , of W. State St., Wauwatosa. Both letters were signed Vito-Towne Hotel.

On this date, I interviewed a Vito Anthony TURI, W/M, DOB 11/26/98, who lives at the Towne Hotel, 7[illegible] W. 3rd St., room #605. This subject denies that he has written any of these types of letters and in fact states that for the past 2[illegible] months, other people have complained to him, that they were going to get him because of the fact that he has been writing these letters. He states that somebody has really got it in for him and is causing him a lot of trouble. He is getting many things sent to his hotel room on a collect type basis and he mentioned in particular Saturday night Ned's Pizza delivered a large size pizza to his room and he did not order it. These things are all done under the name of Vito living at the Towne Hotel. Subject states that he had a falling out with a Herman FOCHAT, who also resides in the hotel about two months ago and since that time he has been having this trouble with these letters being sent to people and signed Vito. Also many items have been purchased using the name of Vito. In checking the B of I, it was found that Vito Anthony TURI, who is now retired, has only traff

These three subjects were arrested by their heriff's Department on October 11, 1972 and in the arrest, they recovered a Colt Police Positive, serial from under the ar when it was stopped. Later on that day a Colt Diamond Back, 2" barrel, serial was recovered in a field next to here their car had been stopped by Sheriff's Deputies. These two guns were turned over to me by Detectives MAYBORNE & MICKELSON Winnebago County Sheriff's Department, for the purpose of sending these weapons to the F.B.I. laboratory to determine if they fired the fatal bullets in the Louis FAZIO case. The Colt Diamond Back, serial was definitely not involved in the shooting of Louis FAZIO as it was in our Police Property Bureau under inventory #363497 at the time that Louis FAZIO was slain; however, the Colt Police Positive, serial which is on our inventory now of 373957, will be sent to the F.B.I. for comparison with the three slugs that were taken from Louis FAZIO's body.

Reported for: Himself Address

Address where offense occurred: (Rear of) 2805 N. Humboldt Ave. Date of Offense September 27, 1072

Explain in detail what work was done on the case: On Friday, October 6, 1972, at 7:30P.M., Detective Lieutenant Carl Ruscitti received an anonymous call from an unknown individual at extension 302. The caller stated the following to Lt. Ruscitti. "If you want the answers to the Louis Fazio murder, go to the Highway Inn, in Kenosha." Lt. Ruscitti questioned the caller if this Highway Inn he was referring to was a bar and restaurant combination. The caller then replied in the affirmative. The caller also stated that the answers also stated that the answers also lie with the man Joe Farina. At this time the anonymous caller who had placed this call to Lt. Ruscitti terminated his conversation and hung-up.

On Tuesday, October 10, 1972, Detective Lieutenant Ruscitti, and Detectives Henning and Schreiber, went to the Racine Police Department and contacted the Detective John Ernst. At that time we questioned Detective Ernst if he knew of any such restaurant by the name of, The Highway Inn. He stated that to the best of his recollection, he knew of no such restaurant by that name. We also contacted Detective Lee, at the Kenosha Sheriffs Department. He stated that he knew of no Highway Inn in the County of Kenosha, but stated that it could be possible that the restaurant could have been called that previously but was with a new name at the present time. He stated that he knew of no such restaurant of this name at this time. We then went to the Kenosha City Police Department where we talked to a Lt. Schorn. Lt. Schorn informed us that there was a restaurant by the name of The Highway Restaurant, located at 2021 Sheridan Road, Zion, Illinois. He informed us that this was right at the state line on Highway 32, which is also Sheridan Road. He also stated that there were two other restaurants that the anonymous caller that had called Lt. Ruscitti could be referring to. One is a Wally's - Always Inn, 1182 Sheridan Road, which Explain in detail what work was done on the case: is on Highway 32. He also named that right at the border line of the state lines of Wisconsin and Illinois, is a restaurant called the State Line Inn, of Sheridan Road and Highway 32 on the state line.

We then, in the company of Detective Ernst from the Racine Police Department, went to these aforementioned restaurants and interviewed different parties in these restaurants and were informed by them that they had no recollection of knowing, or hearing of the Louis Fazio murder, and that they had no knowledge or information in regards to this offense. Upon observing these restaurants and people we have come to the conclusion that none of these restaurants that Lt. Schorn of the Kenosha of City Police named to us would be involved, or could be considered the restaurant that the anonymous caller was referring to.

It is our belief that the anonymous caller who placed this call gave erroneous information. That the subject is possibly a crank caller and that this call was a prank call which was made to Lt. Ruscitti. As the checking of these restaurants and coming up with no such name as the Highway Inn, we feel that the caller gave information which is misleading and is in no way connected to the Louis Fazio offense. The anonymous caller also mentioned the name of Joe Farina, and that he had something to do with this. Previously the subject Joe Farina had been questioned and interviewed in regards to this offense and at the time of the interview Joe Farina had been cleared as of the present time of any knowledge or information in regards to this offense.

On Monday, 10/9/72, I talked to Anthony FAZIO, brother of the complainant in this matter, regarding a Sam DESTEFANO, regarding Sam DESTEFANO being in the Milwaukee area, in the latter part of August, 1972. Sam DESTEFANO is a very good friend of Louis FAZIO, and has been indicted by the Ill. Grand Jury for a gangland Murder of a Leo FORMAN, which occurred in November of 1963. When DESTEFANO was here, he told Louis FAZIO that he expected this indictment to come through and him to be locked up in jail. There was another Italian man with DESTEFANO here at the time that he was here the latter part of August, or the early part of September. Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Wednesday, October 18, 1972, Lt. Roy BACHMANN received information from Assistant District Attorney Joseph TESCH that a Milwaukee Sentinel Reporter, William JANZ, had received a phone call with some information about the Louis FAZIO Murder. On this same date, Detective Lieutenant Roy BACHMANN and myself, Snead CARROLL, talked with Bill JANZ, W/M, 35, of 7163 N. Seneca, at the Milwaukee Sentinel Newspaper Offices, located on the fourth floor of the Milwaukee Sentinel Building. Mr. JANZ stated that he didn't know whether the information would be of any help to us, but stated that on the afternoon of September the 27th, he had received a phone call from a man, who he thought to be elderly and who spoke with Italian phrases, but no accent and told Mr. JANZ that the reason Louis FAZIO was dead was because of an incident that happened approximately 2 years ago at Fazio's on Fifth Street, between Sally PAPIA and Frank FAZIO. Mr. JANZ stated that he knew of this incident from prior conversations with different people who may have been present at the time of this incident and stated it was nothing new to him. He stated that then on Friday, October 13, 1972, he received a memo from a Jerry HINKLEY, who is Police Reporter re-write girl, that works for the Sentinel, that she had received a call from a man, who had stated that he wanted to talk to the Sentinel Reporter that he had talked to before regarding the FAZIO killing. She knew about the conversation that Mr. JANZ had with this caller before and referred this note to him. Mr. JANZ says he no longer has this note, but the note intext was that the Next body would be Sally and that she would get it within the next two months and this would happen in Chicago and the killing would be done by men from California.

We interviewed W/F, 30, of Pewaukee, Wisconsin, who can be reached at phone number and is employed

Information had been received that our department should check out a person, by the name of Gillman NETZEL or a name sounding like that. If we wanted to learn anything further about him, that we should contact Chuck, the bartender, at the Iron Horse Restaurant and Lounge, located 1100 W. Wells. Checked at the Iron Horse Restaurant and Lounge, located at 1100 W. Wells, on this date, 9-29-72, and interviewed the bartender, Charles COLOSO. The bartender stated that the man in question, that we were inquiring about, is in reality a Gilman NETZOW. He states that Netzow did frequent the tavern and restaurant, and did know Louie Fazio. States he was like a friend of the family to Louie. Further, states that he knows of no big time gambling going on between Netzow and Mr. Fazio. That the only thing they would do is maybe bet a five or ten dollar bill on a football game, just between Netzow and Mr. Fazio himself. States as far as he knows, there was nothing else that was going on. Also, that Netzow was well-liked by every one associated in the restaurant and tavern business. Further, states that he has recently heard from Netzow about a week ago, that Netzow sent him a card from Anchorage, Alaska, where Netzow is now working for the Merchant Marine, apparently loading and unloading ships for the Standard Oil Company. Checked with Detective Clerical and found that Netzow is not wanted at this time. A check of our B of I reveals that Netzow has a substantial police record. The record is as follows: Gilman Charles NETZOW, W/M, bn 1-22-32, B of I #61933, subject is 6'4", 154, slim, has the nickname of "Big Feet". He has a substantial record for drunk and disorderly, vagrancy, disorderly, resisting arrest, assault and battery, drunk, battery, burglary and assault to rob. The last arrest was August 2, 1971, which was a drunk arrest. His address at that time was 2448 W, Kilbourn Avenue. Subject's employment is that of a seaman. The assault and robbery charge took place on October 21, 1952, at which time, he received a 1 to 2 year sentence at Green Bay Reformatory in Wisconsin. Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Monday, 10/2/72, we were instructed by Lt. Roy Bachmann of the Day Shift, heading the Murder investigation of Louis Fazio, to interview the nephew of the victim, Ray SUMINSKI, who is a bartender at the Iron Horse Tavern, located on W. Wells St. Mr. Suminski forwarded information to our Department that a white female, known only to him by the first name of Sandy, had called him at the Iron Horse Tavern on Wednesday, asking if the Police Investigators had found her name and telephone number on a piece of paper in Lou's wallet at the time of his death. Sandy related to Mr. Suminski that she was concerned about her telephone number and name being found in the victim's wallet and did not want to become directly involved in anything concerning his death. The conversation consisted of Sandy telling Mr. Suminski that she would be going to the funeral and the conversation terminated shortly thereafter.

At 7:00pm, date, we stopped at the Iron Horse and interviewed the nephew, Ray Suminski, who stated that he did in fact receive such a telephone call from a Sandy. He stated that he did not know Sandy's last name, but that her telephone number was 871-2078. Mr. Suminski further related that he has observed the girl, referred to as Sandy, frequent the bar on only 2 or 3 occassions and has known for a fact that his uncle, Louis Fazio, had taken her home on 1 or 2 occassions. He describes her as a bleached blond, fairly attractive, and young, who only became known to him by her visits to the tavern in the past few weeks while in the company of his uncle. Mr. Suminski could add nothing further except that his plans to open a service station had been post-poned due to the death of his uncle and he expected to be tending bar at this location for an undetermined length of time, until matters were settled.

[illegible] always" crazy of him - no doubt in my mind of that what-so-ever! I just never forgot I had a husband at home, - I still had feeling there too! I felt torn apart once in awhile.

However, no matter what anyone would say about him or think about him - I would not or could not ever hate him. He did what he felt was the best for him - that was his decision - I can't change that at all! —

Nothing can be undone - there is only one thing that I do regret - and I'm happy my Father's not alive to see this - "that we aren't parting friends!" My Father would never, never, never, permit such a thing like that, in our Name", No matter what the circumstances were! With my Father - no circumstance was ever too involved or too great for him that he could not have taken hold of it and made it set right without hatred or ~~as~~ is involved. "Friendship" was his answer!

Then I asked you "not" to have Kay call him. I wish it could have been that way - nevertheless Kay called him - and it seems things got worse!

In what way you might ask? "I should be happy - I have my things back - you might add!" But with dislike, contempt, I don't like that ending. Too many people involved - Kay is too many people as far as I'm concerned! —

I'm certain my friend thinks the same way - He "always" trusted me - He broken that trust and that too made me feel quite badly. -

My father wasn't a fighter as you well know - He was a friendly person - and I guess I'll take after him 100% - I'm happy about that too - because he were very, very close when he was alive too. -

When my father became angry with someone - he sat down like a gentleman and talked things out the best way he knew - he taught my brother and I the same rule. Dad had good reasons of doing what he felt should be done. I feel 100% the same way. The day I went to my friends office I too had "good reasons."

He was playing games with me - he was unable to be adult enough to break things off gentlemanly or maturely. He wanted "me" to do it. He was playing with my heart. Making fun of it towards the end. Lying to me un-mercifully.

I wanted to talk things out the way I was taught to do - I wanted to be a lady and act like one - instead he was sarcastic, smug, he paged thru the journal looking at the pictures - ignoring what I was saying to him. - I wanted him — just "HIM" — to be honest with me - Here I was face to face with him - to tell me - what is going on! ??? — But, he still could not do it! - "He never understand why it was so terribly difficult for him to be straight forward and honest with me? It was most cruel - but, perhaps he finds these things difficult to do, I'd settle for that.

Nevertheless - when he kept ignoring me I lost my lady-like temper.

"I asked him why he had to dye his hair?

in clothes? I asked him what the hell he was up to. Finally I asked him who the hell the girl was that he was seeing. This was Tuesday - October 13th 1970. I took two pictures I had framed for him - over the edge of a cabinet - I took only what I gave him. -

I felt if he could no longer stand the sight of me or want to ever see me again then - he need not have my things around him either. This was only right - and made sense to me because one thing is certain. - "You could not make sense with him - you could not reason with him." -

This was the man I would have trusted with my life. This was the man I had given my heart to -

In beginning to realize how and what pain I went through. It would have been so much

Nevertheless - this was my story - I don't care to ever, ever go through it again.

This was a part of my life - something that happened, something that existed! - something forgotten! — I feel badly for him - I only pray he comes out well in every thing - I pray he is well mentally as well as physically - I'm a catholic, a practicing Christian - there is nothing in my heart but forgiving of others. If God for-gives all - who are we not to forgive others? This is a gratitude my father had about him.

I felt so "certain" you too had in your heart this same forgive-ness and never should the sun set on hatred.

I felt "certain" that "you" and only "YOU" would have made enough of a man out

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE REPORT

Date September 28, 1972 Time 11:50 A. M.

To / ~~From~~ } Name Sgt. John Montzny

Place Chicago, Ill. Phone: 312-622-2071

Regarding: Louis FAZIO murder

Wanted for: Information

Information I advised Sgt. John Montzny that we were referred to him for possible information that might be of assistance to us in our investigation of the murder here of Louis Fazio. He informed me that they recently locked up three guys - Sam DeStefano, Mario DeStefano and Tony Spilotro for the murder of one Leo Forman, that occurred in 1963. Spilotro is a "hit" man and was very close to Milwaukee Phil (Alderisio). They had started digging up old gangland murders and were concentrating on Forman, who was heavy politically and in good with the outfit. They convinced one of their guys to come over to their side, and he told them who killed FORMAN. Their informant was also there and fired a shot. The victim was taken out of his home on some pretext, taken to Westchester and put in the trunk. While talking to their informant, they also brought up the "Action" Jackson case. He was killed in 1961. At one time they had tried to convince Jackson to come on their side, but he was cold to them. Word was dropped around that maybe he would talk. They then heard that the "G" men convinced Jackson to come over to their side and that Jackson was meeting with the Federal people in Fazio's restaurant in Milwauke Unknown to anyone, Fazio was connected with Sam DeStefano. They allegedly had done time together Their feeling is that DeStefano thinks maybe he can beat them on the Forman matter even though they have a lot of evidence, but if they pin the Jackson murder on him, he is in bad shape.

Date 9/28/72. Time _____ M.

They had been thinking about going to see Fazio, but never got there. They know he had a restaurant some place in Milwaukee. I advised him that there are six Fazio brothers and all are restaurant operators, here in Milwaukee and also in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He stated they are going to talk to a guy later today who knows were the restaurant was. They have the man hid away and it will take a little time to get to him. He stated they have been doing a lot of work with the Illinois Bureau of Investigation, and when finishing with Leo Forman, their next case was Action Jackson. He worked for the "outfit" as a collector, and was figured to be the weakest link. The "G" figured they would grab him, and they met up at Fazio's restaurant. They do not know which restaurant as yet, but the information is that sometime back DeStefano did time with the guy in the restaurant. I informed him that the only Fazio brother who served any time was Louis, the man who is now dead. He had served 12 years on a gangland murder, and after he was released he had gone back again for violation of parole. The restaurant they are referring to probably was Fazio's on Fifth, which was located directly across from the Schroeder Hotel, or it could have been the family restaurant on Jackson St. He stated the name Humboldt "hits" him. I advised him that the dead man, Louis Fazio, lived on Humboldt. He said he will know more about the exact location later today after he talks to their man. He was the No. 2 man and will know where the restaurant was. I asked that if he gets any additional information from their informant that he call Capt. Will, who is in charge of this murder investigation.

At which time, this person who was very much a gentleman on the phone, told him about the association with Carmella AUSTIN and was wondering if he, would return these articles, which were give to him by Carmella. told this person, who he now assumes was Louis FAZIO that he would gladly give these articles back, that he had no use for them and seeing as how he was now through with his association with Carmella, he no longer wanted these articles lying around or did he ever want them at any time. states that this party had told him that they had a mutual friend, who is and that when he, is ready to give back these articles, he should contact & give them to him, who in turn will either give these articles to Mr. FAZIO so that they can be returned OR imself would return these articles to the woman, Carmella AUSTIN.

He further states that since this time, about 2 years ago, he has had no contact with Carmella AUSTIN and has no further contact with Mr. FAZIO, if he in turn was the one who had called him up regarding the return of these articles.
